

In Pursuit of Japanese Public Archaeology

Contents

Chapter 1: Outline and Objective of the Research	1
Chapter 2: Research Activities	3
1. Outline	3
2. Fact Finding Visits of the Sites in England	3
3. Inviting Overseas Scholars and Hosting Lectures	3
4. Other Activities	7
5. Conclusion	9
Chapter 3: Current Issues in English and Japanese Public Archaeology	11
1. Introduction	11
2. Summary of the Presentations	11
3. Discussion	13
Chapter 4: Lectures by the Invited Overseas Scholars	23
4-1. "Professional Practice in United Kingdom Archaeology" Kenneth Aitchison	25
Message: On visit to Osaka	32
4-2. "Archaeology in London" Sophie Jackson	33
Message: Impressions of Japanese Archaeology	44
4-3. "70 Years of Public Archaeology and Education in the UK" Don Henson	45
Message: What is Public Archaeology?	54
4-4. "Heritage in Theory and Practice" Kristian Kristiansen	55
Part I. "Popular to Public Archaeology"	55
Part II. "Europe: an Archaeology of Nations. Problems or Potential?"	60
4-5. "Archaeology in Contemporary France: : Discoveries, Researches and Challenges"	67
Jean-Paul Demoule
Chapter 5: Research Reports	71
5-1. "Recent Trends in the Studies of Public Archaeology" Akira Matsuda	73
5-2. " "Discovering the Archaeologists of Europe 2014" and Japanese archaeology: Towards the Construction of Sustainable Archaeology." Katsuyuki Okamura	77
5-3. "Protection of Archaeological Sites in England" Yoshio Negita and Akira Matsuda	85
5-4. "Protection of Underwater Cultural Heritage in England" Yumiko Nakanishi	97
Chapter 6: Future Prospects in the Studies of Japanese Public Archaeology	113
Appendix: Public Archaeology Related Information in England	117